Judicial Review: Practice & Procedure

Wednesday 13th July 2011

The Priory Rooms, Birmingham, 2pm – 5pm
3 CPD Hours

This seminar is a must for all Immigration and Asylum practitioners who conduct cases at the Judicial Review stage. Our half-day seminar will focus on 'Hot Issues in Immigration and Asylum Judicial Reviews'. The following are just some of the topics that will be discussed:

- Judicial Review practice and procedure including fresh JR claims
- Urgent Removal
- Non-appealable Immigration Decisions
- Section 55 / Article 8 / DP5/96 cases
- Age Assessments
- Legacy
- Unlawful Detention

Speakers:

No. 8 Chambers has the largest Immigration and Human Rights Team outside London being well known and well respected by the judiciary, instructing solicitors, fellow members of the Bar and lay clients.

Chambers and Partners states "Adam Pipe comes well recommended, with sources noting his increasingly high profile". Adam is experienced in all aspects of immigration and asylum law, more particularly refugee law; he has appeared at all levels of the Asylum and Immigration Tribunal and in the Administrative Court and Court of Appeal. Adam is a Contributing Editor to Butterworths Immigration Law Service and makes contributions to Lexis Nexis Legal News Analysis.

Stephen Vokes is rated leading junior Counsel in the Midlands in the area of Immigration and Asylum work according to Chambers and Partners Guide to the Legal Profession. He practices exclusively in this field (and has done for the past 10 years), and is accredited by the Immigration Practitioners Accreditation Board of the Bar Council. He regularly appears in the High Court and the Court of Appeal.

Steven will be presenting at the Judicial Review seminar on 13th July 2011.

Emma Rutherford has built up considerable experience acting for appellants in asylum and immigration appeals.
